GERMAN DEFEAT A RUSE

Petrograd, Sunday, Oct. 4 (UPI)—The fact that 2,000 p. m.—The Russian military chief it is felt that the German general staff is now able to analyze and way to force to forestall the intended German invasion of Russia.

In spite of the great importance of the eight days battle between General Hermann von der Reihe, on the Russian side, and General Von Hindenburg on the German side, which has just come to an end and in which the Germans were not only not successful in crossing the river Niemen, according to reports here, but were driven back with heavy losses to the frontier, losing the entire province of Suwalki, excepting the town of that name, if it is the opinion of Russian observers that the Germans intended this costly and tireless demonstration to draw the Russian troops from East Poland as a preliminary to their main object.

This, as revealed by the present fighting near Warsaw, was an attempt to take Warsaw and thence move southward to outflank the Russian army, which having occupied Galicia is now moving through Galicia to Hungary. It is declared here that

Czar Nicholas II., Emperor of All the Russias, and His Czarina.

Today's War Summary

The allies have been obliged to give ground at certain points on the western side of the battle line.
This was announced in a statement issued by the French war office this afternoon.

The announcement contained only the additional announcement that the battle continues with great violence to the north of the Oise without decisive result and there is no change in the remainder of the front.

A wireless dispatch from Berlin to Sayville, today brings a long German official statement in which there is no reference whatever to the great engagement in which the allies are attempting to turn the German right wing in northern France and reach the German line of communication to the rear.

The German war office declares that in the siege of Antwerp, Louis Lieutenant, Wadher and Kommandeur have been taken, opening the way for an attack on the inner circle of fortifications and the city proper.

Official report demands that any of their forts had fallen came from Antwerp today. They declare the situation around Antwerp remains unchanged.
